

But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

1 Peter 2:9 NLT

We are called

- An eternal call to Christ
- A temporary call to an assignment.
- A daily call to a Different standard.

We are called to a Different standard

Don't repay evil for evil. Don't retaliate with insults when people insult you. Instead, pay them back with a blessing. That is what God has called you to do, and he will grant you his blessing.

1 Peter 3:9 NLT

Called:

- To not hate
- To not seek revenge
- To not conform

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is — his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Romans 12:2 NIV

We are called to do good

For God called you to do good, even if it means suffering, just as Christ suffered for you. He is your example, and you must follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:21 NLT

Called:

- To be generous
- To be righteous
- To be loving

Here are some questions that can be used in Connection Groups:
These questions also work well for your personal time with God.

- What spoke most to you from Sundays Talk? Explain.
- What do you believe to be your temporary assignment as of right now? Explain.
- What are some ways you can stay focused on our eternal call to Christ? What may cause distractions?
- We are called to do good in this world. In what ways can this good speak to others? Does it make an impact? Explain.
- How might you be more generous, righteous, and loving? What can you do in the next week to live out these callings?
- In some cases God has called us to refrain from certain behavior. Do you find this difficult? Explain.
- What are some ideals or standards that the world wants us to conform to? How can we resist these, and choose God's standard?
